

Wylliams/Henry Contemporary Dance Company: Our Star Keeps Getting Brighter

We just had to brag a bit...

Wylliams/Henry's own DeeAnna Hiatt recently was featured at New York's famed City Center in a benefit for Career Transitions for Dancers:

In regard to her performance:

- The New York Times noted that "Wylliams/Henry Contemporary Dance... filled the stage with cool heat." (October 31, 2007)
- Newark's Star-Ledger crowed about how DeeAnna "turned up the heat in a clenched and slithery solo..." (October 30, 2007)
- Alan Gordon, Executive Director of the American Guild of Musical Artists, wrote that DeeAnna was "without question, the standout performance of the evening." (October 30, 2007)

On December 30 and 31, Wylliams/Henry will be featured at OceanDance on the beach in Hollywood, Florida. Past festival headliners include Philadanco and Mikhail Baryshnikov and the White Oak Dance Project. We are in distinguished company, no?

And closer to home, Dance St. Louis will host its Spring to Dance festival, May 22-24, 2008. Out of 33 companies to be featured, only two from Kansas City have been invited to participate. One is the Kansas City Ballet, but the other is... yes... Wylliams/Henry.

Who doesn't agree that all good things start at home?

See you at our 2008 Spring Season at UMKC's White Hall, May 8-10. Happy Holidays!
